NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

In addition to the Terps' 14-1 championship season, capturing the National Crown and winning numerous awards, the University of Maryland Lacrosse Team also copped top individual honors. The Terps swept four of the top six awards in the country, including USILA "Collegiate Coach of the Year", "Outstanding Player of the Year", "Outstanding Midfielder in the Nation", and "Outstanding Defenseman of the Year".

Head Coach Bud Beardmore was awarded the Morris Touchstone Memorial Award as the "Coach of the Year" in the University Division. Earlier Beardmore was honored as the "Collegiate Coach of the Year" by Hero's Incorporated.

Doug Schreiber, Maryland's Midfielder-Attackman, was named the recipient of the Lt. Raymond Enners Memorial Award as the "Outstanding Player of the Year". He also received the Lt. Donald McLaughlin Jr. USN Memorial Award as the "Outstanding Midfielder" in the nation. Hero's Incorporated also recognized Schreiber as the "Player of the Year" and he received the Atlantic Coast Conference Plaque as the "ACC Player of the Year".

Schreiber, who was a first team All-American for the past two seasons and was the Terps' second leading scorer last year with 25 goals and 33 assists, was the first recipient of the McLaughlin Award and the first Terrapin honored during the five years of the Enners Award.

Beardmore wins top coaching honors in his fourth season at Maryland and after only seven years as a collegiate coach. His record at Maryland now stands at 38-13, and his overall record in collegiate competition matches 61 wins against only 26 losses.

In his short career at the University of Maryland he has coached the Terps into the NCAA Tournament in each of the Tournament's three years, in 1971 as NCAA Runnerups, NCAA Semi-finalists in 1972 and in 1973 as National Champions.

1974 OUTLOOK

"Capable of repeating as NCAA Champions" is how Head Coach Bud Beardmore describes his 1974 University of Maryland lacrosse team. Beardmore, in his fifth year at the helm of the Terp lacrosse squad, will be returning seven All-Americans and 23 lettermen from his 14-1, 1973 NCAA Championship team.

This year's squad is composed of fine athletes rich in lacrosse talent. However, Coach Beardmore feels the real key to success this season will be the Terrapins' ability to work together as a unit.

Again Maryland will be playing one of the most rigorous schedules in the nation, facing five of the other seven teams participating in last year's NCAA Tournament.

Here is the prospectus by position:

Attack – The Terps' first attack unit returns intact led by All-Americans Pat O'Meally and Ed Mullen who finished second and third respectively in the voting for last year's outstanding attackman in the country. They also paced the Terps in scoring with a combined total of 119 points. Although junior Bob Mitchell who was the Terps' fifth leading scorer accounting for 31 points is back at crease attack, All-American Dave Dempsey who sat out the remainder of the 1973 season after being injured in the Terps' third game will be pressing him for the starting spot. Dempsey currently ranks third on Maryland's all-time career goal list with 81 and needs just 23 to take the lead.

Midfield – Gone from last year's starting midfield unit are Doug Schreiber, Gary Besosa and Larry Hubbard. Both Besosa and Schreiber earned All-America honors and Schreiber was named the outstanding collegiate player in the country last year. However, Coach Beardmore has more than adequate replacements in any one of six players. The premier face-off man in the country, All-American Doug Radebaugh is back. Also returning is last year's freshman sensation first team All-American Frank Urso and junior All-American Brooks Sleeper. Complementing this trio is tri-captain Dino Mattessich, Dave Hallock and Roger Tuck who bring with them valuable experience and leadership.

Defense – Although the Terps are solid offensively, they are faced with the task of rebuilding their defense. The defense, untested as a unit and lacking a great deal of depth, remains a question mark for the Terrapins. Coach Beardmore will be relying on a defensive unit with the ability to do the job but that for the most part played in reserve last year. A real bright spot is the return of second team All-American goalie Bill O'Donnell who will be back in the net for the Terps. In strong contention though for the starting job is freshman Jake Reed, a high school All-American who has looked extremely good in pre-season practice.

HEAD COACH BUD BEARDMORE

USILA "Coach of the Year"

C. A. "Bud" Beardmore is entering his fifth year of coaching at the University of Maryland. A 1962 graduate of the University, he served as head coach at Severn Prep, Hobart College and the University of Virginia before returning to his alma mater in 1970.

Coach Beardmore has the distinction of winning a championship at every school at which he has coached. He won the Maryland Scholastic Association title at Severn Prep in 1965, the Cox Division Crown at Hobart in 1967, the Atlantic Coast Conference title at Virginia in 1969 and at Maryland the NCAA Championship last year as well as the ACC title in 1972 and 1973. He has also coached the Terps to the Mideastern title for the last two years.

Maryland has been in all three NCAA tournaments, as a finalist in 1971, a semi-finalist in 1972, and last year the Terps went all the way winning the national championship. The Terrapins have been ranked Number One in the country after regular season play for the last two years.

Coach Beardmore's ten-year coaching record stands at 89 wins and 33 losses.

Beardmore's coaching record:

		Won	Lost
Severn Prep	1964-66	28	7
Hobart	1967	9	4
Virginia	1968	7	6
Virginia	1969	7	3
Maryland	1970	6	5
Maryland	1971	9	5
Maryland	1972	9	2
Maryland	1973	14	1

As a Maryland undergraduate, Beardmore was a three-time All-American. The 34 goals by Beardmore in 1962 are the most ever by a Maryland midfielder. He also holds the career record for goals by a midfielder with 75 and ranks tenth on the all-time list of Maryland scorers. He held the record for most goals in a regulation game, seven, until 1971. Beardmore is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity, Omicron Delta Kappa and Kalegothos honoraries, and was named to Who's Who in American Colleges in his senior year.

His scoring:

1960	16 goals	7 assists	1962	34 goals	15 assists
1961	25 goals	11 assists	Total	75 goals	33 assists

Coach Beardmore is married to the former Phyllis Balzer and has three children: Jimmy, 10, Steve, 9, and Susan, 6.

ASSISTANT COACHES

COACH RENNIE SMITH

Assistant coach Rennie Smith joined the Maryland lacrosse program in 1966. As an undergraduate at Maryland he was a three-time All-American in 1953-55. He currently ranks as the sixth leading scorer in Maryland history with 55 goals and 73 assists for a total of 128 points. He was awarded the Turnbull Trophy as the best attack man in the state in 1954 while a junior. In his senior year, 1955, Maryland finished as National Champions with a perfect 11-0 record.

COACH JIM DIETSCH

The newest addition to the Terp coaching staff is Jim Dietsch. Coach Dietsch joined the Maryland program in the fall of 1972 and was instrumental in the success of last year's national championship team. A 1969 graduate of Maryland, Coach Dietsch was a three-year letterman for the Terps and was a member of the 1967 National Co-Championship team which went 9-1.

Before returning to Maryland, he served three years in the U.S. Army. He has also taught high school in Montgomery County.

Jim is married to the former Barbara Yates a junior high school science teacher.

MARYLAND LACROSSE HISTORY

The University of Maryland played it's first Lacrosse game as a major varsity sport in 1924. The sport was actually initiated at College Park in 1910 but only on an informal level, and later as a minor sport. E. E. Powell of Baltimore, Maryland, introduced the sport to the College Park campus in 1910. In 1914 R. V. Truitt took over and was instrumental in having the sport elevated to a Major Varsity level.

In 1924 both the University and the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association recognized the sport. Under Coach Truitt the Terps made their debut with a 4-3 win over the University of Pennsylvania and followed with a 5-3 win over Navy and an 11-3 victory over Stevens before suffering the only two shutouts in Terp History by Army and Lehigh. Both games were by 3-0 scores. Johns Hopkins 4-2 and Penn State 8-1 completed the winning season for Maryland. In his four years at the helm of the Terps Coach Truitt had a 22-8-1 collegiate record.

In 1928 Jack Faber took over as the Terrapin mentor and compiled one of the greatest coaching records in history. Coach Faber produced 36 teams for Maryland and never had a losing season. He was actually the Maryland coach for 36 years, but in 1944 and 1945, the Terps did not field a team although they did hold practice sessions. In addition, under the accelerated program in 1942, the Terps fielded two teams playing the usual spring schedule and also a summer schedule which they won.

In all, Coach Faber won 276 games against 75 losses and 2 ties. Al Heagy joined Coach Faber in 1932 and the two produced SEVEN National Championship Squads. In addition, the Terps were the runner-up team for National honors seven times in the same period. The Terps shared National honors with Hopkins and Rutgers in 1928, Faber's first year, and in 1931 were again rated the best team in the nation although this was prior to the Lacrosse Association award, the W. Wilson Wingate Memorial Trophy, which was initiated in 1936.

The Terps have met 40 different colleges on the Lacrosse field and only one, Army, has an edge on the Terps. The Cadets have won 18 to the Terps 16. Navy with a series of 25-21-1 with Maryland ahead and Johns Hopkins with a series of 30-23-1 with Maryland ahead, are the only two teams close to the Terps in series play.

While the Terps have not been blanked since their opening season, their opponents have suffered 34 shutouts at the hands of the Terps. The most one-sided game in Terrapin history was a 26-2 win over Duke in 1960, while Hopkins 20-8 win over the Terps in 1959 is the largest total score margin by an opponent over the Terps. Navy's 22-12 win in 1962 is the highest score made against the Terps.

The Terps participated in the Olympic Playoff Series twice defeating Rutgers 7-2 and Navy 6-2 before losing the final game to Johns Hopkins in 1928 and in 1932 defeated Mt. Washington 9-0, Rutgers 5-4 before again losing to Hopkins 7-5 in the final game.

The overall Maryland Lacrosse record now stands at 376 wins against 96 defeats and 4 ties for the 48 years.

The longest game in Maryland History was a 5-5 tie with Stevens Institute in 1925 which concluded three 10 minute overtime periods. Coach Faber played in that game for Maryland.

The Terps have had 6 undefeated seasons: 1936 (6-0), 1937 (7-0), 1940 (10-0), 1942 (4-0, summer league), 1955 (11-0), 1956 (10-0).

* THEARLE–URSO *

The success of last year's Maryland Lacrosse Team was due in large part to two All-Americans, Mike Thearle and Frank Urso.

Defenseman Mike Thearle, two-time All-America selection and last year's recipient of the Schmeisser Memorial Cup as the "outstanding Defense Man of the Year", became the first Terrapin to receive this national award since 1956. His outstanding defensive play was a key factor in the Terps' holding their regular reason opponents to only 66 goals in 12 games. As a junior, Thearle received the Joe Deckman – Sam Silber lacrosse trophy as the team's most improved defenseman and last year was the recipient of the Dr. Reginald Van Trump Truitt Award given annually to a graduating senior on the team for scholastic attainments and team performance.

Although only a freshman, Frank Urso was named first team All-American last year making him the first freshman in 25 years to gain such an honor. In addition to being the Terps' fourth leading scorer with 48 points, the freshman star seemed to perform best under pressure and came up with the big score when it was needed. Not only did he score 13 points in Tournament play for the Terps, he had three key goals in the title game. The Terps led only twice the entire game and Urso provided the edge both times. In sudden-death overtime the Terrapin midfielder unassisted, fired a shot from seven to ten yards out past Hopkins' goalie Les Matthews to give Maryland the win and the NCAA title in 1973.

Midfielder Frank Urso who provided the winning margin in last year's championship bout with Johns Hopkins, dodges defender en-route to Jays' goal.
